FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

National Trust For Historic Preservation

The National Trust provides matching grants and low-interest loans for preservation activities. Funding is available for site acquisition, rehabilitation costs, inner-city neighborhoods, education programs, and for the restoration of historic interiors. See www.nationaltrust.org/help/preserving_sacred_sites.html. Unless instructed otherwise, contact Brent Leggs, Northeast Regional Office, for information on the National Trust grant programs: NTHP Northeast Regional Office, Seven Faneuil Hall Marketplace, 4th Floor, Boston, MA 02109, 617-523-0885, Northeast_Office@nthp.org, www.nthp.org/help/grants/html.

The Johanna Favrot Fund for Historic Preservation provides nonprofit organizations and public agencies grants ranging from $2,500 to $10,000 for projects that contribute to the preservation or the recapture of an authentic sense of place. Individuals and for-profit businesses may apply only if the project for which funding is requested involves a National Historic Landmark. Funds may be used for professional services, conferences, workshops and education programs. Grants generally range from $2,500 to $10,000. Funds are not available to support “bricks and mortar” restoration costs. Competition for these grants is intense; this is a national grant source with a very limited number of funds. The application deadline is February 1.

The Cynthia Woods Mitchell Fund for Historic Interiors provides nonprofit organizations and public agencies grants ranging from $2,500 to $10,000 to assist in the preservation, restoration, and interpretation of historic interiors. Individuals and for-profit businesses may apply only if the project for which funding is requested involves a National Historic Landmark. Funds may be used for professional expertise, print and video communications materials, and education programs. Funds are not available to support “bricks and mortar” restoration costs. Competition for these grants is intense; this is a national grant source with a very limited number of funds. The application deadline is February 1.

John E. Streb Fund for New York provides nonprofit organizations and public agencies matching grants from $500 to $5,000 (typically from $1,000 to $1,500) for preservation planning and education efforts. Funds may be used to obtain professional expertise in areas such as architecture, archeology, engineering, preservation planning, land-use planning, fund raising, organizational development and law as well as preservation education activities to educate the public. Funds are not available to support “bricks and mortar” restoration costs. Application deadlines are February 1 and October 1.

Save America's Treasures is a partnership between the National Park Service and the National Trust. Historic properties owned by active religious organizations may be eligible for funding if they meet the national significance criteria. See guidelines at www.saveamericastreasures.org, or contact Trust staff at 202-588-6202, 877-873-2787 or saveamericastreasures@nthp.org. Only nationally-significant sites are eligible (i.e., National Historic Landmarks or National Register of Historic Places sites listed at the level of national significance). For information on the NR status of a site, see www.nysparks.state.ny.us/shpo. To discuss upgrading your site contact Mark Peckham at NYSHPO: 518-237-8643. For questions directly related to the federal grant program process, call Joe Wallis at the National Park Service at 202-354-2054.

Sacred Sites Program (SSP) provides grants for the preservation of historic religious buildings and related sites throughout New York State. Support for planning and implementation is available. Eligible properties must be owned by a religious institution, and designated as a local landmark or listed in the State or National Registers of Historic Places. The maximum grant is $10,000. The recipient must match the award dollar-for-dollar. Deadlines for application are generally May 1st and November 1st of each year.

Consulting Grant Fund

The SSP administers another 50/50 matching grant to support professional fees for the preservation of historic houses of worship and related sites in New York City. Projects considered for funding include: conditions surveys, master plans, specification writing, project management, engineering reports, stained glass surveys, and laboratory testing. There are no deadlines for this program. Contact staff for eligibility.

Robert W. Wilson Sacred Sites Challenge

This SSP grant program awards matching grants of $25,000 to $50,000 for large church restoration projects. Eligible properties must be owned by a religious institution, actively used for worship, and listed as a local landmark or on the State and National Registers of Historic Places. Priority is given to the large-scale, comprehensive restoration of steeples, roofs and related drainage systems, exterior masonry walls, and stained glass windows. Consultant fees and planning documents will not be funded. Prospective applicants must first call to discuss their projects.

Environmental Protection Fund (EPF) provides reimbursement grants to municipalities and nonprofit corporations, including religious institutions, for the preservation and restoration of historic properties and development of the state's Heritage Areas System. Historic preservation grants must improve, protect, preserve, rehabilitate or restore properties on the State or National Registers of Historic Places. All grants are made available on a matching basis of up to 50% of total project costs. For the long term protection of the property, recipients must convey a covenant to OPRHP, based on the amount of funding received. For information regarding the next funding round and the name of your regional grant staff, see websites listed above or contact Austin O'Brien, 518-237-8643, x3279. Note: Clean Water/Clean Air Bond Act funding is no longer available.

National Trust for Historic Preservation

The Trust has a website section on preservation of Historic Houses of Worship. See: www.nationaltrust.org/issues/houses_of_worship/. There are several publications available as PDF files including Preserving Historic Religious Properties: A Toolkit for Congregations and Community Leaders. The toolkit helps identify important character-defining features of historic church structures, gives examples of other successful reuses of churches in Boston and surrounding communities, and offers guidance for repairs and redevelopment of historic church structures. The toolkit also provides basic information on how local zoning and permitting processes work, and lists specialists who can be called upon to help plan for the repair, maintenance, and sensitive reuse of historic religious structures. While focused on Massachusetts, the information is relevant for other regions. The Trust also publishes a number of books on preservation, fundraising, etc..
